

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

Bel Fury Investments Group, LLC, Appellant,

v.

Douglas County Board of Equalization,
Appellee.

Case Nos: 16R 0425 & 17R 0563

Decision and Order Affirming the Determinations of the Douglas County Board of Equalization

Background

1. The Subject Property is a residential parcel improved with a 1,056 sq. ft. split entry dwelling, with a legal description of: Wildewood Lot 213 Block 0 60 x 110, Omaha, Douglas County, Nebraska.
2. The Douglas County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $115,600 for tax year 2016.
3. Bel Fury Investments Group, LLC, (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Douglas County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested an assessed value of $102,400 for tax year 2016.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $115,600 for tax year 2017.
5. The County Assessor assessed the Subject Property at $115,000 for tax year 2017.
6. The Taxpayer protested this value to the County Board and requested an assessed value of $105,800 for tax year 2017.
7. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $115,000 for tax year 2017.
8. The Taxpayer appealed the determinations of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
9. A Single Commissioner Hearing was held on September 27, 2018, at Omaha State Office Building, 1313 Farnam, Room E, Omaha, Nebraska, before Commissioner Steven Keetle.
10. Scott W. Bloemer, Managing Member, was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
11. Larry Thomsen, Senior Appraiser: Residential, of the Douglas County Assessor/Register of Deeds Office (the County Appraiser) was present for the County Board.

Applicable Law

12. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.<sup>1</sup>

13. The Commission’s review of the determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.<sup>2</sup>
14. When considering an appeal a presumption exists that the “board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.”<sup>3</sup> That presumption “remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary. From that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented. The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.”<sup>4</sup>
15. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>5</sup>
16. Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.<sup>6</sup>
17. A Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.<sup>7</sup>
18. The Commission’s Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.<sup>8</sup>

Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

19. For tax year 2016 the Taxpayer alleged that the per square foot assessed value of the Subject Property was not equalized with a comparable property.
20. The Taxpayer notes that the Nebraska Court of Appeals held in Scribante that “To set the valuation of similarly situated property, i.e. comparables, at materially different levels, i.e., value per square foot, is by definition, unreasonable and arbitrary, under the Nebraska Constitution.”<sup>9</sup>
21. Comparable properties share similar use (residential, commercial/industrial, or agricultural), physical characteristics (size, shape, and topography), and location.<sup>10</sup>

<sup>2</sup> See, Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). “When an appeal is conducted as a ‘trial de novo,’ as opposed to a ‘trial de novo on the record,’ it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal.” *Koch v. 22. The Taxpayer presented the Property Record File (PRF) of a property located near the Subject Property for tax year 2016.
23. Along with the PRFs the Taxpayer offered a chart that made adjustments to the assessed values of the comparable property to adjust for differences in the characteristics of the properties. The Taxpayer stated that these adjustments were based on the Taxpayer's experience in the real estate market and the information contained in the PRFs.
24. The County Board presented information regarding all of the qualified sales that occurred in the economic area of the Subject Property for tax year 2016 used in determining the value attributed to each of the characteristics of residential properties in those areas, including the Subject Property, to support the differences in per square foot assessed values between the Subject Property and the other properties presented.
25. The County Assessor indicated that the Subject Property and the property presented as comparable were different styles of construction and were located in different neighborhoods and different sales would have been used to determine their assessed values.
26. The property presented by the Taxpayer as comparable is a multi-level residence while the Subject Property is a raised ranch.
27. The PRFs presented demonstrate that the differences in per square foot assessments between the Subject Property and the other property presented for tax year 2016 were due to differences in the characteristics of the properties such as style of construction, garage type and size, basement finish, fireplace, deck type and size, etc.
28. The Taxpayer alleged that the condition rating of the Subject Property should be reduced for tax year 2017. The Taxpayer indicated that the condition of the Subject Property was reduced by a rough tenant but did not offer specific information regarding the condition of the Subject Property to allow the Commission to reduce the condition rating from Average to Fair.
29. The Taxpayer alleged that the assessed value of the Subject Property was not equalized with that of comparable properties for tax year 2017.
30. The Taxpayer presented as comparable properties two properties located near the Subject Property and alleged that the Subject Property should be assessed at a per square foot amount nearer to that of these properties.
31. The two properties presented by the Taxpayer are split entry residence in the same subdivision as the Subject Property but they have a condition rating of Fair while the Subject Property is rated as Average.
32. The PRFs presented demonstrate that the differences in per square foot assessments between the Subject Property and the other properties presented for tax year 2017 were due to differences in the characteristics of the properties such as condition, basement size and finish, etc.

33. The Taxpayer has not demonstrated that the valuations of similarly situated properties were set at materially different levels entitling the Subject Property to a reduction in assessed values under the court's determination in Scribante.
34. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
35. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determinations of the County Board are arbitrary or unreasonable and the decisions of the County Board should be affirmed.
