

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

Judith M. Sickler,
Appellant,

v.

Buffalo County Board of Equalization,
Appellee.

Case No: 17R 0254

Decision and Order Reversing
County Board of Equalization

Background

1. The Subject Property is a single family dwelling, with a legal description of: Countryside Estates 3rd Add Lt 16.
2. The Buffalo County Assessor (the Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $373,265 for tax year 2017.
3. The Taxpayer protested this value to the Buffalo County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested an assessed value of $275,306 for tax year 2017.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $373,265 for tax year 2017.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on November 20, 2018 at the Law Enforcement Center, 111 Public Safety Drive, 2nd Floor Community Room, Grand Island, Nebraska, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Judith M. Sickler was present at the hearing.
8. Andrew W. Hoffmeister, Deputy County Attorney, and Ethel Skinner, the Assessor, were present for the County Board.

Applicable Law

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of the determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When considering an appeal a presumption exists that the "board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon

² See, Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-5016(8) (2016 Cum. Supp.), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). "When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." Koch v. Cedar Cty. Freeholder Bd., 276 Neb. 1009, 1019 (2009).

sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.”³ That presumption “remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary. From that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented. The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.”⁴

12. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁵
13. Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁶
14. A Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.⁷
15. The Commission’s Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.⁸

Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

16. The Taxpayer presented information at the hearing that may not have been properly provided to the County Board by the County Board’s referee.
17. Upon consideration of the information provided by the Taxpayer at the hearing, the Assessor stated the value of the Subject Property is in excess of market value.
18. In the Assessor’s opinion, the actual value of the Subject Property as of January 1, 2017, was $325,000.
19. The Taxpayer has produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
20. The Taxpayer has adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be vacated.

ORDER
