

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

Bel Fury Investments Group, LLC, Appellant,

v.

Douglas County Board of Equalization,
Appellee.

Case Nos: 18R 0294 & 19R 0543

Decision and Order
Affirming the Decision of the
Douglas County Board of Equalization

Background

1. The Subject Property is a residential parcel with a legal description of: Park Wild Addition Lot 12, Block 4 1/2 VAC Alley ADJ & LT 12 43x137.5.
2. The Douglas County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $58,600 for tax year 2018 and $58,600 for tax year 2019.
3. Bel Fury Investments Group, LLC (the Taxpayer) protested these values to the Douglas County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested assessed values of $42,000 for tax year 2018 and $38,200 for tax year 2019.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $58,600 for tax year 2018 and $58,600 for tax year 2019.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determinations of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on August 14, 2020, at the Tax Equalization and Review Commission Hearing Room, Sixth Floor, Nebraska State Office Building, 301 Centennial Mall South, Lincoln, Nebraska, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Arielle Bloemer, legal counsel, and Scott W. Bloemer, Member, were present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Kurt Skradis (the Appraiser), was present at the hearing for the County Board.

Applicable Law

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When considering an appeal a presumption exists that the "board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon

² See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). "When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." Koch v. Cedar Cty. Freeholder Bd., 276 Neb. 1009, 1019 (2009).

sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.”³ That presumption “remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary. From that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented. The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.”⁴

12. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁵
13. Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁶
14. A Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.⁷
15. The Commission’s Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.⁸

Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

16. The Taxpayer stated the Subject Property is in need of many repairs as evidenced by the Property Evaluation Report done by Connie Watson in June 2020, which showed an estimate to repair or replace interior and exterior items at a cost of $59,200.
17. The Appraiser stated that the current condition rating of “fair” accounts for major repairs being needed and deferred maintenance being obvious.
18. The Taxpayer provided comparable properties to show the dis-equalization on a price per square foot basis. The Taxpayer made “market adjustments” to arrive at an adjusted assessed value per square foot for the comparables. Although the Taxpayer has many years of real estate knowledge, no supporting evidence shows that the adjustments made to the comparable properties are correct. The Taxpayer provided two comparable sales as evidence. Both are from a different neighborhood as the Subject Property, and both are much older with different components and amenities than the Subject Property.
19. The Appraiser stated that one of the comparable sales was completely gutted at the time of sale and was not a good comparable. The Appraiser stated the Subject Property is currently valued less than the 2006 purchase price paid by the Taxpayer. The Appraiser stated the neighborhood has not been reappraised since 2012 and is due for a review.

⁸ Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5018(1) (Reissue 2018).

20. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
21. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determinations of the County Board are arbitrary or unreasonable and the decisions of the County Board should be affirmed.
