

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

Bel Fury Investments Group LLC, Appellant,

v.

Douglas County Board of Equalization,
Appellee.

Case Nos: 18R 0305 & 19R 0530

Decision and Order Affirming the Determinations of the Douglas County Board of Equalization

Background

1. The Subject Property is a residential parcel improved with a 1,080 square foot one and one-half story residence, with a legal description of: Minne Lusa Lot 3 Block 13 44 X 120, Omaha, Douglas County, Nebraska.
2. The Douglas County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $53,400 for tax year 2018 and $59,400 for tax year 2019.
3. Bel Fury Investments Group LLC (the Taxpayer) protested these values to the Douglas County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested assessed values of $33,000 for tax year 2018 and $35,400 for tax year 2019.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $53,400 for tax year 2018 and $59,400 for tax year 2019.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determinations of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on May 24, 2021, at the Omaha State Office Building, 1313 Farnam, Room 227, Omaha, Nebraska, before Commissioner Steven Keetle.
7. Arielle Bloemer, legal counsel, and Scott W. Bloemer were present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Scott Barnes and Kurt Skradis with the Douglas County Assessor/Register of Deeds Office (the County Appraisers) were present for the County Board.

Applicable Law

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²

² See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). "When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier

11. When considering an appeal a presumption exists that the “board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.”³ That presumption “remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary. From that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented. The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.”⁴
12. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁵
13. Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁶
14. A Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.⁷
15. The Commission’s Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.⁸

Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

16. The Taxpayer presented information regarding the condition of the Subject Property and recent sales of properties. He stated that he agreed with the condition rating of the Subject Property found in the Property Record Files (PRF), and that he was not asserting that the sales prices of the sold properties presented represented evidence of market value for the Subject Property.
17. At the hearing, the Taxpayer asserted that the only issue he was proceeding with was that the per square foot assessed value of the Subject Property was not equalized with comparable properties for tax years 2018 and 2019.
18. The County Board presented the 2018 and 2019 PRF for the Subject Property and information regarding recent valid sales for each tax year.
19. The PRF shows that the market area in which the Subject Property is located was reappraised for tax years 2018 and 2019 trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal.” Koch v. Cedar Cty. Freeholder Bd., 276 Neb. 1009, 1019 (2009).

⁸ Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5018(1) (Reissue 2018).

20. The Taxpayer notes that the Nebraska Court of Appeals held in Scribante that “To set the valuation of similarly situated property, i.e. comparables, at materially different levels, i.e., value per square foot, is by definition, unreasonable and arbitrary, under the Nebraska Constitution.”⁹
21. Comparable properties share similar use (residential, commercial/industrial, or agricultural), physical characteristics (size, shape, and topography), and location.¹⁰
22. The Taxpayer presented the PRF of properties located near the Subject Property for tax years 2018 and 2019.
23. The Taxpayer presented a chart that made adjustments to the value of the comparable properties for each tax year to adjust for differences in the characteristics of the properties. The Taxpayer stated that these adjustments were made based on his experience in the real estate market and the information contained in the PRFs. Although the Taxpayer may have knowledge of the Omaha real estate market, he is not a trained appraiser and none of the adjustments can be quantified by supporting evidence.
24. The County Appraisers stated that the Taxpayer’s comparable properties are located in different market areas than the Subject Property and would not be comparable due to different market factors in each market area.
25. The Taxpayer alleges that the market areas determined by the County Assessor are arbitrary or unreasonable.
26. The Taxpayer did not present information to demonstrate that the market areas utilized by the County Assessor are arbitrary or unreasonable.
27. The Commission finds that the properties presented by the Taxpayer are not comparable to the Subject Property.
28. The Taxpayer has not demonstrated that the valuation of similarly situated properties were set at materially different levels entitling the Subject Property to a reduction in assessed value under the court’s determination in Scribante.
29. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
30. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determinations of the County Board are arbitrary or unreasonable and the decisions of the County Board should be affirmed.
