

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

Julius E. Haes,
Appellant,

v.

Lancaster County Board of Equalization,
Appellee.

Case Nos: 19A 0089

Decision and Order Affirming
County Board of Equalization

Background

1. The Subject Property is a rural single family dwelling on 12.18 acres, with a legal description of: S14, T7, R8, 6th Principal Meridian, Lot 10 NE.
2. The Lancaster County Assessor (the Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $122,500 for tax year 2019.
3. Julius E. Haes (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Lancaster County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested a lower assessed value for tax year 2019.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $122,500 for tax year 2019.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on October 30, 2020, at the Tax Equalization and Review Commission Hearing Room, Sixth Floor, Nebraska State Office Building, 301 Centennial Mall South, Lincoln, Nebraska, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Julius E. Haes was present at the hearing.
8. Tim Sealock (the Appraiser) was present for the County Board.

Applicable Law

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission’s review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When considering an appeal a presumption exists that the “board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.”³ That presumption “remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears

² See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). “When an appeal is conducted as a ‘trial de novo,’ as opposed to a ‘trial de novo on the record,’ it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal.” Koch v. Cedar Cty. Freeholder Bd., 276 Neb. 1009, 1019 (2009).

when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary. From that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented. The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.”⁴

12. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁵
13. Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁶
14. A Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.⁷
15. The Commission’s Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.⁸

Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

16. The Taxpayer stated the Subject Property is in poor condition. Insurance has been discontinued by the provider on the improvements and the house cannot be rented. The Taxpayer stated his daughter is living in the house. The Appraiser stated the Subject Property has been given the lowest quality and condition rating for a house that is being occupied.
17. The Taxpayer stated he is unable to make any money from the land as there are trees and he is unable to farm the property. The Appraiser stated the land was given an agricultural use value for 2019 and the trees were considered in the classifying of the land use.
18. The Taxpayer did not provide any evidence to show the Subject Property is being unfairly valued. No property record files were provided showing the county is valuing the Subject Property differently than other similar properties.
19. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
20. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.
