

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

Katherine A. Anderson Revocable Trust,
Katherine A. Anderson,
Appellant,

v.

Lancaster County Board of Equalization,
Appellee.

Case No: 19A 0091

Decision and Order Affirming
County Board of Equalization

Background

1. The Subject Property is a rural single family dwelling on 3.22 acres, with a legal description of: S6, T9, R5 6th Principal Meridian, Lot 28 SW.
2. The Lancaster County Assessor (the Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $179,400 for tax year 2019.
3. Katherine A. Anderson (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Lancaster County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested a lower value for tax year 2019.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $179,400 for tax year 2019.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on August 26, 2020, at the Tax Equalization and Review Commission Hearing Room, Sixth Floor, Nebraska State Office Building, 301 Centennial Mall South, Lincoln, Nebraska, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Craig Anderson and Kathy Anderson were present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Tim Sealock (the Appraiser) was present for the County Board.

Applicable Law

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission’s review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When considering an appeal a presumption exists that the “board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.”³ That presumption “remains until

² See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). “When an appeal is conducted as a ‘trial de novo,’ as opposed to a ‘trial de novo on the record,’ it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal.” Koch v. Cedar Cty. Freeholder Bd., 276 Neb. 1009, 1019 (2009).

there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary. From that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented. The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.”⁴

12. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁵
13. Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁶
14. A Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.⁷
15. The Commission’s Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.⁸

Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

16. The Taxpayer felt the increase in value from 2018 to 2019 was an unreasonable increase. The Taxpayer stated the house has a basement that is wet, only has 60 amp service and has old outbuildings. The Taxpayer is currently renting the property to a young couple.
17. The assessed value for real property may be different from year to year, dependent upon the circumstances.⁹ For this reason, a prior year’s assessment is not relevant to the subsequent year’s valuation.¹⁰
18. The Taxpayer does not agree with the County Board’s comparable properties. The Taxpayer feels the Subject Property is more comparable with Seward County properties since it is located south of Interstate 80 on the Lancaster/Seward County line.
19. The Appraiser stated there was a physical inspection of the Subject Property. The land component of the Subject Property has been adjusted for location. The Appraiser feels the current assessment is correct.
20. The Taxpayer did not provide any property record files (PRF) for any comparable properties showing the Subject Property is being unfairly valued as compared to other properties. The Commission does not have any evidence to justify a value other than the current assessment.

21. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
22. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.
