

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

ROSANNE M. PICKERING,
APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 21R 0775

V.

DECISION AND ORDER
REVERSING THE DECISION
OF THE DOUGLAS COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

DOUGLAS COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Douglas County, parcel number 2108630010.
2. The Douglas County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $234,400 for tax year 2021.
3. Rosanne M. Pickering (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Douglas County Board of Equalization (the County Board).
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $234,400 for tax year 2021.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on January 13, 2023, at the Omaha State Office Building, 1313 Farnam, Room 227, Omaha, Nebraska, before Commissioner Steven Keetle.
7. Rosanne Pickering was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Scott Barnes with the County Assessor's Office (the County Appraiser) was present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When considering an appeal, a presumption exists that the "board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action."³ That presumption "remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary. From that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented. The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board."⁴
12. The order, decision, determination, or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁵
13. Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁶

² See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). "When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. 14. A Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.⁷
15. The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.⁸

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

16. The Subject Property is a residential parcel improved with a 1,919 square foot one and one-half story residence built in 1983. The Subject Property has quality and condition ratings of average.
17. The Taxpayer alleged that the increase in the assessed value of the Subject Property from the prior assessed value, particularly in relation to other nearby properties, was unreasonable or arbitrary.
18. The assessed value for real property may be different from year to year according to the circumstances.⁹ For this reason, a prior year's assessment is not relevant to the subsequent year's valuation.¹⁰
19. The Commission must look to the value of the Subject Property as of January 1 of each tax year.¹¹
20. The County Board presented the Property Record File (PRF) for the Subject Property. The PRF contains information about the characteristics of the Subject Property and information regarding the qualified sales that occurred in the economic area of the Subject Property, including the last two sales of the Subject Property. This information was used to determine the value attributed to each of the characteristics of residential properties in the area, including the Subject Property.

21. The Taxpayer did not present the PRFs for the properties whose values she discussed. Accordingly, the Commission only has the square footage and value change and cannot see the basis for the determination of assessed value for the properties presented by the Taxpayer or compare their characteristics to the characteristics of the Subject Property. The Commission is unable to determine the contribution of the different characteristics of the properties contained in the Taxpayers chart to the Subject Property.¹²
22. The Taxpayer alleged that the value should be lowered based on the condition of the Subject Property.
23. The Taxpayer discussed the condition of the roof and siding of the Subject Property as well as the windows and areas of interior finish, particularly the space over the garage and the basement.
24. The Taxpayer presented estimates for replacement of the roof and siding on the Subject Property.
25. The County Appraiser stated that he inspected the Subject Property prior to the hearing and based on the condition of the property at that inspection as well as the characteristics he observed during the inspection he recalculated the valuation and had a new opinion of value for the Subject Property of $196,900 for tax year 2021.
26. Based on all of the information presented at the hearing the Commission finds that the assessed value of the Subject Property for tax year 2021 is $196,900, with $13,200 allocated to the land component and $183,700 for the improvements.

¹² For this reason, the Order for Single Commissioner Hearing and Notice issued to the Taxpayer on July 8, 2022, includes the following:

NOTE: Copies of the County's Property Record File for any property you will present as a comparable parcel should be provided so that your claim can be properly analyzed. The information provided on the County's web page is not a property record file. A Property Record File is only maintained in the office of the County Assessor and should be obtained from that office prior to the hearing.

27. The Taxpayer has produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
28. The Taxpayer has adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be vacated.

IV. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The decision of the County Board of Equalization determining the taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2021 is vacated and reversed.
2. The taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2021 is:

Land	$ 13,200
Improvements	$183,700
Total	$196,900

3. This Decision and Order, if no further action is taken, shall be certified to the Douglas County Treasurer and the Douglas County Assessor, pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5018 (Reissue 2018).
4. Any request for relief, by any party, which is not specifically provided for by this Decision and Order is denied.
5. Each party is to bear its own costs in this proceeding.
6. This Decision and Order shall only be applicable to tax year 2021.

7. This Decision and Order is effective on December 28, 2023.

Signed and Sealed: December 28, 2023

Steven A. Keetle, Commissioner
