

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

NDR CORPORATION
APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 22A 0196

V.

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION
OF THE HOWARD COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

HOWARD COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an agricultural parcel in Howard County, Nebraska with parcel number 470849378.
2. The Howard County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $437,811 for tax year 2022.
3. NDR Corporation (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Howard County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested an assessed value of $407,811 for tax year 2022.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $437,811 for tax year 2022.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on September 18, 2025, at Law Enforcement Center, 111 Public Safety Drive, Community Building 2nd Floor, Grand Island, NE, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. David Inman was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Neal Dethlefs and Kathy Hirschman were present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.<sup>1</sup>
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.<sup>2</sup>
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.<sup>3</sup>
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.<sup>4</sup> That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.<sup>5</sup>
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.<sup>6</sup> The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.<sup>7</sup>

"When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. 14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>8</sup> Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.<sup>9</sup>
15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.<sup>10</sup> The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>11</sup>
16. In an appeal, the Commission may determine any question raised in the proceeding upon which an order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is based.<sup>12</sup> The Commission may consider all questions necessary to determine taxable value of property as it hears an appeal or cross appeal.<sup>13</sup> The Commission may take notice of judicially cognizable facts, may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge, and may utilize its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to it.<sup>14</sup> The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.<sup>15</sup>

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Taxpayer brought this appeal alleging that a 2019 flood had deposited sand on the Subject Property, changing the soil type. The Taxpayer asserts that the Subject Property's land is incorrectly subclassified based on this new soil type.
18. The Taxpayer, through Mr. Inman, produced photos from 2020, and two jars filled with soil. One jar was from the Subject Property and the other was from another location in Wheeler County. The specific location is unclear. The Taxpayer also produced a hand-written table he titled "Comparative Sand Sieve Analysis" which the Taxpayer alleged demonstrated the relative sand contents in the two jars.
19. The Taxpayer presented no evidence showing that the Subject Property's soil classifications are incorrect or that they should have changed for tax purposes.<sup>16</sup>
20. The County Assessor produced pages from the 2022 Reports and Opinions of the Property Tax Administrator for Howard County discussing agricultural land and the property record file for the Subject Property.
21. "In all appeals, excepting those arising under section 77-1606, if the appellant presents no evidence to show that the order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is incorrect, the commission shall deny the appeal."<sup>17</sup>
22. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
23. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.
