

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

ROSE M. NELSON APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 23R 0698

V.

MORRILL COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
BENJAMIN JACOBY
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
REVERSING THE DECISION
OF THE MORRILL COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Morrill County, parcel number 200061863.
2. The Morrill County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $444,120 for tax year 2023.
3. The Taxpayer (Benjamin Jacoby) requested a taxable value of $348,040 for the tax year 2023.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $387,000 for tax year 2023.
5. Rose M. Nelson (the Assessor) appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on September 10, 2024, at Fairfield Inn and Suites by Marriott, 902 Winter Creek Drive, Scottsbluff, NE 69361, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Robert M. Brenner, Attorney, and Rose M. Nelson (the Assessor) were present at the hearing.
8. Kirk M. Fellhoelter, Morrill County Attorney, was present for the County Board.

9. The Taxpayer did not appear for the hearing.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

10. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
11. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
12. When considering an appeal, a presumption exists that the "board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action."³ That presumption "remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary. From that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented. The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board."⁴
13. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁵

² See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). "When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." Koch v. Cedar Cty. Freeholder Bd., 276 Neb. 1009, 1019, 759 N.W.2d 464, 473 (2009).

⁵ Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(9) (Reissue 2018).

14. Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁶
15. A Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.⁷
16. The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.⁸

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Assessor stated an exterior inspection of the Subject Property was conducted to ensure the Property Record File (PRF) was accurate. After the inspection, the Assessor recommended no change to the County Board. The County Board took action to adjust the value lower, near the 2020 appraised value. The Assessor provided a copy of the September 2020 appraisal that she was given.
18. The Assessor provided the PRF for the Subject Property. The Assessor provided PRFs for comparable properties with one comparable property selling twice in tax year 2023. The Assessor stated she increased rural residential property in order to stay in compliance with Neb. Rev. Stat. 77-5023 requiring residential properties to be assessed within the acceptable range of 92% to 100% of actual value.
19. The Appellee argued that the Assessor's 28% increase to rural residential property was based on a limited number of sales and did not feel that 6 sales were enough to warrant such an increase. The Appellee lowered the assessment to be near the 2020 appraisal value of the Subject Property.

20. The Appellee did not provide any evidence to support a lower value for the Subject Property, however, “[T]he County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the taxpayer establishes the Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.”⁹
21. Competent evidence can be “evidence tending to show that the valuation” adopted by a county board of equalization is questionable. In this case, the Assessor provided evidence to support her valuation. The Assessor provided comparable properties with a price per square foot comparison as well as one of the comparables that had sold twice. Both sales of the comparable property were not within the sales date range to be used by the Assessor, however she submitted them to show the current upward trend in sales prices. The proposed value by the Appellee lowered the Subject Property’s price per square foot below comparable properties. The Assessor provided the residential correlation for Morrell County, showing that due to increasing sales prices as compared to assessments, an increase to all valuation groups in Morrell County was necessary to achieve equalization.
22. The Appellant has produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
23. The Appellant has adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be vacated.
