

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

JAMES N DAVIS,
APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 23R 1489

V.

DOUGLAS COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION
OF THE DOUGLAS COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Douglas County, parcel number 0242400000.
2. The Douglas County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $163,000 for tax year 2023.
3. James N. Davis (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Douglas County Board of Equalization (the County Board).
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $140,000 for tax year 2023.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on February 6, 2024, at the Omaha State Office Building, 1313 Farnam, Room 227, Omaha, Nebraska, before Commissioner Steven Keetle.
7. James Davis and Valerie Davis were present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Matt Holly with the Douglas County Assessor's Office (the County Appraiser) was present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.³
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.⁴ That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.⁵
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.⁶ The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.⁷

² See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). "When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." Koch v. Cedar Cty. Freeholder Bd., 276 Neb. 1009, 1019, 759 N.W.2d 464, 473 (2009).

14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁸ Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁹
15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.¹⁰ The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.¹¹
16. In an appeal, the Commission may determine any question raised in the proceeding upon which an order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is based.¹² The Commission may consider all questions necessary to determine taxable value of property as it hears an appeal or cross appeal.¹³ The Commission may take notice of judicially cognizable facts, may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge, and may utilize its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to it.¹⁴ The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.¹⁵

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Subject Property is a residential parcel improved with a 2,024 square-foot duplex constructed in 1955. The Subject Property has quality and condition ratings of average.
18. The Taxpayer alleged that the assessed value of the Subject Property should be reduced due to its condition.
19. The Taxpayer discussed the sewer drains around the Subject Property and the interior of the Subject Property with its original 1950's tile and kitchen.
20. The County Board presented the Property Record File (PRF) for the Subject Property. The PRF contains information about the characteristics of the Subject Property and information regarding the qualified sales that occurred in the economic area of the Subject Property. This information was used to determine the value attributed to each of the residential properties in the area, including the Subject Property.
21. The County Appraiser stated that, based on the Taxpayer's description of the interior of the Subject Property, he felt that the condition of the Subject Property was closer to fair condition, however he stated that the reduction in the value of the improvements made by the County Board at the protest level account for the change in condition from average to fair.
22. The Taxpayer did not present information to show that the County Appraiser's revised condition rating of fair for the Subject Property was unreasonable or arbitrary.
23. The Taxpayer alleged that the assessed value of the Subject Property was not equalized with other comparable properties.
24. The Taxpayer presented information from the assessor's website for three properties located in the same neighborhood as the Subject Property.
25. The Taxpayer did not present the PRF for the properties presented as comparables. Accordingly, the Commission cannot see the basis for the determination of assessed value for the properties presented by the Taxpayer or compare their characteristics to the characteristics of the Subject Property. The Commission is unable to determine the contribution of the different characteristics of the properties presented by the Taxpayer to the Subject Property.¹⁶

26. The PRF for the Subject Property shows that there was a reappraisal for the Subject Property's neighborhood in 2022 as well as a land value review in 2023, and that the improvement value for tax year 2023 is not based on the County Appraiser's 2023 valuation model but rather on the 2022 value as adjusted by the County Board.
27. The information that was provided by the Taxpayer shows that the properties presented as comparables were all fair quality two-story properties frame stucco duplexes constructed in 1944 while the Subject Property is an average quality ranch style frame masonry veneer duplex constructed in 1955. The Subject Property has attached garages while none of the properties presented as comparables have garages.
28. The Commission finds that the properties presented by the Taxpayer are not comparable to the Subject Property.
29. The Taxpayer has not shown that the assessed value of the Subject Property was not equalized with other comparable properties.
30. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
31. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or

¹⁶ For this reason, the Order for Single Commissioner Hearing and Notice issued to the Taxpayer on January 4, 2024, includes the following:

NOTE: Copies of the County's Property Record File for any property you will present as a comparable parcel should be provided so that your claim can be properly analyzed. The information provided on the County's web page is not a property record file. A Property Record File is only maintained in the office of the County Assessor and should be obtained from that office prior to the hearing.

unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

IV. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The decision of the County Board of Equalization determining the taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2023 is affirmed.
2. The taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2023 is:

Land	$ 1,200
Improvements	$138,800
Total	$140,000

3. This Decision and Order, if no further action is taken, shall be certified to the Douglas County Treasurer and the Douglas County Assessor, pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5018.
4. Any request for relief, by any party, which is not specifically provided for by this Decision and Order is denied.
5. Each party is to bear its own costs in this proceeding.
6. This Decision and Order shall only be applicable to tax year 2023.
7. This Decision and Order is effective on December 16, 2025.

Signed and Sealed: December 16, 2025

Steven A. Keetle, Commissioner
