COMMISSION

DREW TONNIGES
APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 24R 0112

V.

DAWSON COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION
OF THE DAWSON COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Dawson County, parcel number 240204360.
2. The Dawson County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $729,395 for tax year 2024.
3. Drew Tonniges (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Dawson County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested an assessed value of $589,476 for tax year 2024.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $729,395 for tax year 2024.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on September 18, 2025, at Grand Island Police Department 111 Public Safety Dr. Grand Island, Nebraska, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Drew Tonniges was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. No one appeared for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be

- assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
 11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.³
 12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.⁴ That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.⁵
 13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.⁶ The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.⁷
 14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or

"When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. arbitrary.⁸ Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁹

15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.¹⁰ The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.¹¹
16. In an appeal, the Commission may determine any question raised in the proceeding upon which an order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is based.¹² The Commission may consider all questions necessary to determine taxable value of property as it hears an appeal or cross appeal.¹³ The Commission may take notice of judicially cognizable facts, may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge, and may utilize its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to it.¹⁴ The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.¹⁵

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Taxpayer brought this appeal challenging the increase in taxable value to the Subject Property in tax year 2024.
18. The Taxpayer presented some sales information from two properties the Taxpayer alleges are comparable to the Subject Property. The sales information was printed from an indeterminate website or other application.
19. The Taxpayer did not provide the property record files (PRFs) for the Subject Property or the properties presented for comparison purposes. Without the details contained in the PRFs, the Commission is unable to determine whether the properties discussed are comparable to the Subject Property.¹⁶
20. The Taxpayer provided no other evidence or information to show the value of the Subject Property.
21. “In all appeals, excepting those arising under section 77-1606, if the appellant presents no evidence to show that the order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is incorrect, the commission shall deny the appeal.”¹⁷
22. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
23. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

¹⁶ For this reason, the Order for Single Commissioner Hearing and Notice issued to the Taxpayer on June 13, 2025, includes the following:

NOTE: Copies of the County’s Property Record File for any property you will present as a comparable parcel should be provided so that your claim can be properly analyzed. The information provided on the County’s web page is not a property record file. A Property Record File is only maintained in the office of the County Assessor and should be obtained from that office prior to the hearing.*
