

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

KAREN SIMS
APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 24R 0232

V.

GARFIELD COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION
OF THE GARFIELD COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Garfield County, parcel number 002030602.
2. The Garfield County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $226,753 for tax year 2024.
3. Karen Sims (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Garfield County Board of Equalization (the County Board).
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $226,753 for tax year 2024.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on June 12, 2025, at Judicial Center, 604 Heritage Drive, Hearing Room, Broken Bow, NE 68822, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Steven and Karen Sims were present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Kali Bolli (the Assessor) was present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.<sup>1</sup>
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.<sup>2</sup>
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.<sup>3</sup>
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.<sup>4</sup> That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.<sup>5</sup>
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.<sup>6</sup> The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.<sup>7</sup>
14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall

"When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>8</sup> Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.<sup>9</sup>

15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.<sup>10</sup> The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>11</sup>
16. In an appeal, the Commission may determine any question raised in the proceeding upon which an order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is based.<sup>12</sup> The Commission may consider all questions necessary to determine taxable value of property as it hears an appeal or cross appeal.<sup>13</sup> The Commission may take notice of judicially cognizable facts, may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge, and may utilize its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to it.<sup>14</sup> The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.<sup>15</sup>

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Taxpayer stated she has an issue with the depreciation being lower than the previous year. The Taxpayer asserts the depreciation should be higher for the 2024 valuation.
18. The Taxpayer provided partial property record files (PRF) for the Subject Property and comparables. Without complete PRF's, the Commission is unable to analyze and compare other properties with the Subject Property.
19. The Taxpayer stated a metal roof and heat pump were replaced after the Taxpayer purchased the Subject Property, and the siding was replaced in 2018. However, no other improvements were made in the past several years.
20. The Assessor stated that costing and depreciation tables were updated from 2008 to 2020 Vanguard costing and depreciation tables, which were used to revalue the county.
21. The Assessor provided comparable sales, with PRF's, used to set depreciation schedule for similar type homes.
22. The Assessor used professionally accepted methods of mass appraisal.
23. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
24. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

IV. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The decision of the County Board of Equalization determining the taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2024 is affirmed.
2. The taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2024 is:
