

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

KAYLA MILLER
APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 24R 0484

V.

DAWSON COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION
OF THE DAWSON COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Dawson County, parcel number 240138422.
2. The Dawson County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $185,451 for tax year 2024.
3. Kayla Miller (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Dawson County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested an assessed value of $165,064 for tax year 2024.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $185,451 for tax year 2024.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on July 23, 2025, at Best Western Plus North Platte Inn & Suites, 3201 S Jeffers St., North Platte, NE 69101, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Kayla Peterson (Miller) was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Darlene M. Shafer and Nic Van Cura (County Assessor) were present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.<sup>1</sup>
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.<sup>2</sup>
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.<sup>3</sup>
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.<sup>4</sup> That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.<sup>5</sup>
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.<sup>6</sup> The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.<sup>7</sup>
14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall

"When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>8</sup> Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.<sup>9</sup>

15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.<sup>10</sup> The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>11</sup>

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Taxpayer brought this appeal alleging the Subject Property is assessed above market value. The Taxpayer also alleged the condition rating for the Subject Property is too high, and that the Subject Property is not in “very good condition.”
18. At the hearing, the Taxpayer provided a table of various properties and certain assessment information with highlights for the Subject Property and two comparable properties. The Taxpayer also provided the property record files (PRFs) for the Subject Property and her two comparables for tax year 2025.
19. The assessed value for real property may be different from year to year according to the circumstances.<sup>16</sup> For this reason, a prior year’s assessment is not relevant to the subsequent year’s valuation.<sup>17</sup> For the same reasons, the 2025 PRFs provided by the Taxpayer are not relevant.
20. The Taxpayer also did not provide the 2024 PRFs for any of the properties presented. Without the details contained in the 2024 PRFs, the Commission is unable to determine whether the properties discussed are comparable to the Subject Property.
21. The County Assessor provided the 2024 PRFs for the two comparables and for the Subject Property. However, the first page is missing from the Subject Property’s PRF. Again, without the details contained in the 2024 PRF, the Commission is unable to determine whether the properties discussed are comparable.
22. The Taxpayer produced no evidence to show the Subject Property’s condition rating was incorrect.
23. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
24. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

IV. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

- 1. The decision of the County Board of Equalization determining the taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2024 is affirmed.
- 2. The taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2024 is:

Land	$ 6,876
Improvements	$178,575
Total	$185,451

- 3. This Decision and Order, if no further action is taken, shall be certified to the Dawson County Treasurer and the Dawson County Assessor, pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5018.
- 4. Any request for relief, by any party, which is not specifically provided for by this Decision and Order is denied.
- 5. Each party is to bear its own costs in this proceeding.
- 6. This Decision and Order shall only be applicable to tax year 2024.
- 7. This Decision and Order is effective May 8, 2026.
