

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

SHEILA A. STAAB
APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 24R 0578

V.

DAWSON COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION OF THE DAWSON COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel with improvements on leased land (IOLL) in Dawson County, parcel number 240175913.
2. The Dawson County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $188,385 for tax year 2024.
3. Sheila A. Staab (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Dawson County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested an assessed value of $122,180 for tax year 2024.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $179,525 for tax year 2024.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on July 23, 2025, at Best Western Plus North Platte Inn & Suites, 3201 S Jeffers St., North Platte, NE 69101, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Sheila Staab was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Darlene M. Shafer and Nic Van Cura were present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.³
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.⁴ That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.⁵
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.⁶ The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.⁷
14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall

"When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁸ Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁹

15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.¹⁰ The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.¹¹
16. In an appeal, the Commission may determine any question raised in the proceeding upon which an order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is based.¹² The Commission may consider all questions necessary to determine taxable value of property as it hears an appeal or cross appeal.¹³ The Commission may take notice of judicially cognizable facts, may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge, and may utilize its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to it.¹⁴ The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.¹⁵

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Taxpayer brought this appeal asserting there is a clerical error in the assessment for tax year 2024, seeking credit for previous tax years, challenging depreciation, and challenging the land valuation.
18. The assessed value for real property may be different from year to year according to the circumstances.¹⁶ For this reason, a prior year's assessment is not relevant to the subsequent year's valuation.¹⁷
19. To the extent that the Taxpayer seeks to redress valuations from tax years other than 2024, those valuations are not relevant. Similarly, any dispute between the Taxpayer and the County Board related to credits or refunds for prior tax years is not before the Commission. The Commission's review is therefore limited to the valuation of the Subject Property for tax year 2024.
20. The Taxpayer provided several exhibits including the county's notice of valuation for tax year 2024, a copy of her protest form, a letter from the County Assessor explaining adjustments made to the assessments of agricultural real property and the various subclasses of residential real property for 2024, printed pages from both gWorks GIS and Google Maps relating to the Subject Property and several other properties the Taxpayer asserts are comparable to the Subject Property, a table of the assessment increases including the Subject Property, some pictures of the Subject Property, and the appraisal property record card from the County Assessor.
21. The Taxpayer did not provide the PRF for any of the properties presented for comparison purposes. Without the details contained in the PRF, the Commission is unable to determine whether the properties discussed are comparable to the Subject Property.¹⁸ The printed pages from gWorks GIS and Google Maps do not show the necessary information to compare the properties.

22. Nothing in the Taxpayer's pictures show the quality or condition ratings in the property record card are incorrect.
23. The Taxpayer has provided no evidence of the actual value of the Subject Property's land and improvements in 2024.
24. Therefore, the Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
25. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

IV. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The decision of the County Board of Equalization determining the taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2024 is affirmed.
2. The taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2024 is:

Land	$ 25,000
Improvements	$154,525
Total	$179,525

¹⁸ For this reason, the Order for Single Commissioner Hearing and Notice issued to the Taxpayer on June 13, 2025, includes the following:

NOTE: Copies of the County's Property Record File for any property you will present as a comparable parcel should be provided so that your claim can be properly analyzed. The information provided on the County's web page is not a property record file. A Property Record File is only maintained in the office of the County Assessor and should be obtained from that office prior to the hearing.*

3. This Decision and Order, if no further action is taken, shall be certified to the Dawson County Treasurer and the Dawson County Assessor, pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5018.
4. Any request for relief, by any party, which is not specifically provided for by this Decision and Order is denied.
5. Each party is to bear its own costs in this proceeding.
6. This Decision and Order shall only be applicable to tax year 2024.
7. This Decision and Order is effective on May 8, 2026.

SIGNED AND SEALED: May 8, 2026.
