

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

SHEILA A. STAAB
APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 24R 0579

V.

CUSTER COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION
OF THE CUSTER COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Custer County, parcel number 001083500.
2. The Custer County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $52,626 for tax year 2024.
3. Sheila A. Staab (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Custer County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested an assessed value of $42,336 for tax year 2024.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $52,626 for tax year 2024.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on June 12, 2025, at the Custer County Judicial Center, 604 Heritage Drive, Hearing Room, Broken Bow, Nebraska 68822, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Sheila A. Staab was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Elise Taylor (the Assessor) was present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.<sup>1</sup>
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.<sup>2</sup>
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.<sup>3</sup>
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.<sup>4</sup> That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.<sup>5</sup>
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.<sup>6</sup> The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.<sup>7</sup>
14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall

"When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>8</sup> Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.<sup>9</sup>

15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.<sup>10</sup> The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>11</sup>
16. ### III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Taxpayer brought this appeal alleging the Subject Property is overvalued and is not equalized with comparable properties.
18. The Taxpayer stated a property at 611 S 12th Avenue recently sold for $125,000 yet is only assessed at $44,184. The Taxpayer stated 611 S 12th Avenue is most comparable to the Subject Property in age and location.
19. The Taxpayer provided two more comparables which have differing qualities and conditions as the Subject Property. The two comparables are different style properties and wouldn't be considered good comparable properties.
20. The Assessor stated the Taxpayer's comparable is a conversion home with nine units. The Subject Property is a single-family home that has been converted into a four-unit, multi-family home. The Taxpayer's comparable was valued as a commercial property as all converted homes with five or more units.
21. The Assessor provided comparable multi-family homes and comparable homes for depreciation.
22. The Assessor is using professionally accepted mass appraisal methods.
23. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
24. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

IV. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The decision of the County Board of Equalization determining the taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2024 is affirmed.
