

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

WILLIAM A LUHRS
APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 24R 0625

V.

CHASE COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION
OF THE CHASE COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Chase County, parcel number 150020473.
2. The Chase County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $75,719 for tax year 2024.
3. William A Luhrs (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Chase County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested an assessed value of $56,742 for tax year 2024.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $75,719 for tax year 2024.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on July 21, 2025, at Best Western Plus North Platte Inn & Suites, 3201 S Jeffers St, North Platte, NE 69101, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. William A. Luhrs was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Joel Burke (County Attorney) and Tori Mueller (Assessor) were present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.³
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.⁴ That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.⁵
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.⁶ The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.⁷
14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or

"When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. arbitrary.⁸ Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁹

15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.¹⁰ The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.¹¹
16. In an appeal, the Commission may determine any question raised in the proceeding upon which an order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is based.¹² The Commission may consider all questions necessary to determine taxable value of property as it hears an appeal or cross appeal.¹³ The Commission may take notice of judicially cognizable facts, may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge, and may utilize its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to it.¹⁴ The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.¹⁵

17. The Taxpayer stated that the Subject Property value was arbitrary and unreasonable due to the conditional issues at the property.
18. The Taxpayer stated that the Subject Property had hail damage and foundational issues that would impact the value of the property. The Taxpayer estimated that the hail damage equated to $28,000 and the foundation issues were estimated at $50,000-$60,000 to rectify.
19. The Taxpayer provided multiple close-up photographs of the foundation issues of the property but did not provide evidence to properly quantify the property's damage or to show that the condition of the property was something other than what was indicated by the County Assessor's data.
20. All real property, other than agricultural land and horticultural land, is valued at 100% of its actual value. ¹⁶
21. "Actual value may be determined using professionally accepted mass appraisal methods, including, but not limited to, the (1) sales comparison approach using the guidelines in Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-1371, (2) income approach, and (3) cost approach."¹⁷
22. The Assessor indicated that the Subject Property neighborhood was revalued for 2024 and valuation models were updated based on sales comparison analyses to determine actual value.
23. The Taxpayer has not produced sufficient competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
24. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

IV. ORDER

¹⁶ Title 350 Neb. Admin. Code, ch.10 § 003.01A (10/2014).
