COMMISSION

WILLIAM G. LAKE APPELLANT,

V.

DOUGLAS COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

CASE NO: 24R 0749

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION
OF THE DOUGLAS COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Douglas County, parcel number 0530667410.
2. The Douglas County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $397,200 for tax year 2024.
3. William G. Lake (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Douglas County Board of Equalization (the County Board).
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $397,200 for tax year 2024.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on November 6, 2025, at the Tax Equalization and Review Commission Hearing Room, Nebraska State Office Building, Lincoln, Nebraska, before Commissioner Jackie S. Russell.
7. William G. Lake was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Tim Tran (Appraiser) was present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.<sup>1</sup>
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.<sup>2</sup>
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.<sup>3</sup>
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.<sup>4</sup> That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.<sup>5</sup>
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.<sup>6</sup> The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.<sup>7</sup>
14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall

A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal.” *Koch v. be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>8</sup> Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.<sup>9</sup>

15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.<sup>10</sup> The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>11</sup>

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Subject Property is a two-story, single-family home built in 1992 with above grade area of 2,616 square feet (SF) and basement area of 1,346 SF of which 906 SF is fully finished. There are three full and one-half baths, and a built-in garage with 744 SF. The overall quality rating is good, and condition rating is average.
18. The Taxpayer stated that the increase in value for one year is arbitrary and unreasonable, creating an inflated value for the Subject Property.
19. The assessed value for real property may be different from year to year according to the circumstances.<sup>16</sup> For this reason, a prior year's assessment is not relevant to the subsequent year's valuation <sup>17</sup>
20. The Taxpayer provided photos of the bathrooms of the property citing that they are original construction, as well as photos of "street creep" which is causing the concrete driveway to shift and crack. The Taxpayer opined that because of these issues, the property is overvalued.
21. The Appraiser reviewed the data components of the property and the condition rating of the property with the Taxpayer at hearing and asserted the information contained in the Property Record File (PRF) to be correct.
22. The Appraiser attested that the conditional rating of average for the Subject Property indicates that there are some components in need of repair within the home due to normal wear and tear, however, major components of the property have been maintained, and the property is at the appropriate condition rating for its age according to their appraisal practices.

23. All taxable real property, with the exception of agricultural land and horticultural land, shall be valued at actual value for purposes of taxation.<sup>18</sup>
24. Actual value of real property for purposes of taxation means the market value of real property in the ordinary course of trade. Actual value may be determined using professionally accepted mass appraisal methods, including, but not limited to, the (1) sales comparison approach using the guidelines in section 77-1371, (2) income approach, and (3) cost approach. Actual value is the most probable price expressed in terms of money that a property will bring if exposed for sale in the open market, or in an arm's length transaction, between a willing buyer and willing seller, both of whom are knowledgeable concerning all the uses to which the real property is adapted and for which the real property is capable of being used. In analyzing the uses and restrictions applicable to real property, the analysis shall include a consideration of the full description of the physical characteristics of the real property and an identification of the property rights being valued.<sup>19</sup>
25. The Appraiser provided a packet of information for the Subject Property including the PRF. The information details the Subject Property's components of contributory value, the subsequent cost approach to value, sales from the Subject Property neighborhood, and the impact of the market sales data on the property's valuation using professionally accepted mass appraisal practices.
26. The Taxpayer did not provide any information to quantify the effects of original bathrooms or street creep to the property value for the Commission to analyze.
27. The Taxpayer did not provide information to demonstrate the condition rating of "average" is arbitrary or unreasonable.
28. The Taxpayer has not produced sufficient competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.

29. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.
