

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

BROOK BUGENHAGEN APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 25R 0136

v.

MADISON COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
REVERSING THE DECISION
OF THE MADISON COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Madison County, parcel number 590110055.
2. The Madison County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $649,385 for tax year 2025.
3. Brook Bugenhagen (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Madison County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested an assessed value of $438,795 for tax year 2025.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $572,847 for tax year 2025.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on July 17, 2026, at Divots Conference Center, 4200 W Norfolk Ave, Norfolk, NE, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Brook Bugenhagen was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Jeff Hackerott (Appraiser) was present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.³
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.⁴ That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.⁵
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.⁶ The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.⁷

² See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). "When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. 14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁸ Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁹
15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.¹⁰ The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.¹¹
16. In an appeal, the Commission may determine any question raised in the proceeding upon which an order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is based.¹² The Commission may consider all questions necessary to determine taxable value of property as it hears an appeal or cross appeal.¹³ The Commission may take notice of judicially cognizable facts, may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge, and may utilize its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to it.¹⁴ The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.¹⁵

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Subject Property is a single-family residence located in Madison County, Nebraska.
18. At the hearing, the Taxpayer argued that the assessed value of the Subject Property should be $328,336.
19. First, the Taxpayer argued the assessed value was too high due to the Subject Property being the oldest and smallest home in the area. The Taxpayer presented printouts from the County Assessor's website for various properties, including the Subject Property, to support these contentions.
20. The Taxpayer provided no information to determine what, if any, impact the differences between these properties and the Subject Property have on the Subject Property's value.
21. The Taxpayer's own information shows the properties offered for comparison are not comparable to the Subject Property and are therefore not indicative of the Subject Property's value.
22. The Taxpayer next argued that various deferred maintenance issues dramatically affect the condition, and therefore the value, of the Subject Property. Specifically, the Taxpayer stated the roof and driveway both need to be repaired or replaced. The Taxpayer included estimates for repair or replacement, as well as photos of the Subject Property to show the issues.
23. Although maintenance issues may affect the value of real property, the Taxpayer did not show to what degree these issues affect the actual value of the Subject Property or that the County Board had not accounted for these issues.
24. The Appraiser present on behalf of the County Board works in the County Assessor's office. After reviewing the Subject Property and comparable neighboring properties, the Appraiser recommended a new value for the Subject Property of $509,229.
25. The Appraiser's recommendation is competent evidence to rebut the presumption in favor of the County Board. Further, the Commission finds the Appraiser's recommendation at the hearing to be the best evidence of actual value for the Subject Property.

26. The Taxpayer has produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
27. The Taxpayer has adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be vacated.

IV. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The decision of the County Board of Equalization determining the taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2025 is vacated and reversed.
2. The taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2025 is:

Total	$509,229
-------	-----------

3. This Decision and Order, if no further action is taken, shall be certified to the Madison County Treasurer and the Madison County Assessor, pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5018.
4. Any request for relief, by any party, which is not specifically provided for by this Decision and Order is denied.
5. Each party is to bear its own costs in this proceeding.
6. This Decision and Order shall only be applicable to tax year 2025.
7. This Decision and Order is effective on August 6, 2026.

SIGNED AND SEALED: August 6, 2026.
