

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

KAYLEE CONRAD APPELLANT,

v.

LANCASTER COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

CASE NO: 25R 0781

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION OF THE LANCASTER COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Lancaster County, parcel number 09-13-225-002-000.
2. The Lancaster County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $418,100 for tax year 2025.
3. Kaylee Conrad (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Lancaster County Board of Equalization (the County Board).
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $418,100 for tax year 2025.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on March 30, 2026, at the Tax Equalization and Review Commission Hearing Room, Nebraska State Office Building, Lincoln, Nebraska, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Kaylee Conrad was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Lexi Lucey (Appraiser) and Tim Johns were present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.³
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.⁴ That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.⁵
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.⁶ The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.⁷

² See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). "When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. 14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁸ Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁹
15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.¹⁰ The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.¹¹
16. In an appeal, the Commission may determine any question raised in the proceeding upon which an order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is based.¹² The Commission may consider all questions necessary to determine taxable value of property as it hears an appeal or cross appeal.¹³ The Commission may take notice of judicially cognizable facts, may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge, and may utilize its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to it.¹⁴ The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.¹⁵

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Taxpayer brought this appeal alleging the County Board overvalued the Subject Property.
18. At the hearing, the Taxpayer presented a written narrative which includes statements about the Subject Property's condition and other features which the Taxpayer asserts drive down the value.
19. The Taxpayer did not quantify the effects, if any, of these issues on the Subject Property's value.
20. The Taxpayer also listed seven comparable properties (Taxpayer's Comparables) in her written narrative and provided printouts of information from Zillow.com for each of them.
21. The Taxpayer did not provide the property record files (PRFs) for the Subject Property or for any of the properties presented for comparison. Without the details contained in the PRF, the Commission is unable to determine whether the properties discussed are comparable to the Subject Property.¹⁶
22. To the extent the Taxpayer's Zillow printouts contain information from which the Commission can examine comparability, they demonstrate the properties presented by the Taxpayer are not comparable to the Subject Property.
23. Comparable properties share similar use (residential, commercial industrial, or agricultural), physical characteristics (size, shape, and topography), and location.¹⁷
24. The Appraiser presented the PRF for the Subject Property.
25. The PRF shows the Subject Property is a one-and-a-half story home.

¹⁶ For this reason, the Order for Single Commissioner Hearing and Notice issued to the Taxpayer on February 24, 2026, includes the following:

NOTE: Copies of the County's Property Record File for any property you will present as a comparable parcel should be provided so that your claim can be properly analyzed. The information provided on the County's web page is not a property record file. A Property Record File is only maintained in the office of the County Assessor and should be obtained from that office prior to the hearing.

26. The Taxpayer's Comparables in the Zillow printouts appear to be all different styles than the Subject Property. Some are one-story, two-story, or even split-level homes.
27. Again, without more information, the Commission cannot determine comparability.
28. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
29. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

IV. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The decision of the County Board of Equalization determining the taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2025 is affirmed.
2. The taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2025 is:

| | |
|-------|-----------|
| Total | $418,100 |
|-------|-----------|

3. This Decision and Order, if no further action is taken, shall be certified to the Lancaster County Treasurer and the Lancaster County Assessor, pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5018.
4. Any request for relief, by any party, which is not specifically provided for by this Decision and Order is denied.
5. Each party is to bear its own costs in this proceeding.
6. This Decision and Order shall only be applicable to tax year 2025.
7. This Decision and Order is effective on June 5, 2026.

SIGNED AND SEALED: June 5, 2026.
