

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

KEVIN R. DELKA
APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 25R 0867

v.

LANCASTER COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION OF THE LANCASTER COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Lancaster County, parcel number 10-35-422-013-000.
2. The Lancaster County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $173,200 for tax year 2025.
3. Kevin R Delka (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Lancaster County Board of Equalization (the County Board).
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $173,200 for tax year 2025.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on May 19, 2026, in the Morrill Room, Nebraska State Office Building, Lincoln, Nebraska, before Commissioner Jackie S. Russell.
7. Kevin Delka was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Bret Smith (Appraiser) and Brayden Richardson were present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.³
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.⁴ That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.⁵
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.⁶ The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.⁷

² See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). "When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. 14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁸ Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁹
15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.¹⁰ The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.¹¹
16. In an appeal, the Commission may determine any question raised in the proceeding upon which an order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is based.¹² The Commission may consider all questions necessary to determine taxable value of property as it hears an appeal or cross appeal.¹³ The Commission may take notice of judicially cognizable facts, may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge, and may utilize its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to it.¹⁴ The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.¹⁵

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Subject Property is a one-story, single-family residence built in 1928 with 744 square feet (SF) above grade and basement area of 744 SF with 350 SF minimal finish. The Subject Property has seven plumbing fixtures, a quality rating of fair (2.0), and a condition rating of typical (4.0).
18. The Taxpayer argued that the Subject Property's value was arbitrary or unreasonable due to misinformation about the property's basement finish and bedroom count in the component data of the assessment record.
19. The Taxpayer asserted that the Subject Property did not have basement finish and only had one bedroom above grade.
20. The Taxpayer did not provide evidence to quantify a different value due to the alleged inconsistencies within the assessment record.
21. However, the Appraiser provided the Commission with the "Lancaster County 2025 Residential Valuation Methodology Model: Low" (Low Model) and the Property Record File (PRF) for the Subject Property.
22. The PRF indicates that the Subject Property is in the low model neighborhood as indicated by "7LCN042 – Garfield Park – Low."
23. The Appraiser indicated that "minimal finish" is described as paint on the block walls and/or non-affixed carpeting or rugs, no ceiling finish, and minimal electrical outlets.
24. The Appraiser stated that the "minimal finish" basement area is not part of the Low Model value, a statement that is supported by the coefficients to value on the addendum page within the Low Model document.
25. The Appraiser also stated that the bedroom count field of the assessment data does not attribute value to a property but rather the "total living area" of the main floor is considered in the analysis.

26. The Appraiser provided a Comparable Sales Report to support the Subject Property valuation with recently sold properties along with their PRFs. These documents detailed the components of comparability and adjustments to the sale prices based on professionally accepted mass appraisal methods to support the Subject Property valuation.
27. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
28. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

IV. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The decision of the County Board of Equalization determining the taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2025 is affirmed.
