

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

ROBIN MAYO APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 25R 0898

v.

DOUGLAS COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION OF THE DOUGLAS COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Douglas County, parcel number 2144310000.
2. The Douglas County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $316,600 for tax year 2025.
3. Robin Mayo (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Douglas County Board of Equalization (the County Board).
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $316,600 for tax year 2025.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on March 26, 2026, at the Tax Equalization and Review Commission Hearing Room, Nebraska State Office Building, Lincoln, Nebraska, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Robin Mayo was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. James G. Morris (Appraiser) was present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.¹
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.²
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.³
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.⁴ That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.⁵
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.⁶ The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.⁷

² See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5016(8) (Reissue 2018), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). "When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. 14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.⁸ Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.⁹
15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.¹⁰ The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.¹¹
16. In an appeal, the Commission may determine any question raised in the proceeding upon which an order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is based.¹² The Commission may consider all questions necessary to determine taxable value of property as it hears an appeal or cross appeal.¹³ The Commission may take notice of judicially cognizable facts, may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge, and may utilize its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to it.¹⁴ The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.¹⁵

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Taxpayer brought this appeal alleging the Subject Property should have been categorized as rural residential because it is outside of city limits and has no city utilities. The Taxpayer alleged in her appeal that the Subject Property is being compared to properties inside city limits.
18. The Taxpayer provided a photo of part of the Subject Property showing some trees, a close-up satellite photo of the Subject property showing its proximity to the highway, and a printout of some Douglas County zoning regulations dealing with rural residential zoning.
19. However, these photos are insufficient to rebut the presumption in favor of the County Board because they do not suggest the Subject Property was misclassified. The photos do not show the Subject Property's surroundings. Additionally, the Douglas County zoning code does not determine assessment classifications. That classification is determined by regulations promulgated by the Nebraska Department of Revenue.¹⁶
20. The Taxpayer presented no comparable properties or other information to show the classification assigned to the subject Property by the County Assessor was incorrect.
21. Further, the Taxpayer did not quantify the impact on the Subject Property's value, if any, of reclassification into rural residential.
22. The Taxpayer also alleged in her appeal that the Subject Property should receive a valuation decrease of 15% due to being adjacent to a highway.
23. The Taxpayer asserted in her appeal form the Subject Property received such an adjustment prior to 2020.
24. At the hearing, the Taxpayer presented a partial property record card for the Subject Property dated January 25, 2019, showing the 15% decrease for a "negative attribute" applied to the land.

¹⁶ See Title 350 Neb. Admin. Code ch 10 (10/2014).

The 2019 record card does not provide what attribute justified the decrease.

25. In any case, the assessed value for real property may be different from year to year according to the circumstances.¹⁷ For this reason, a prior year's assessment is not relevant to the subsequent year's valuation.¹⁸
26. The Taxpayer presented no other basis for applying such a decrease in tax year 2025.
27. "In all appeals, excepting those arising under section 77-1606, if the appellant presents no evidence to show that the order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is incorrect, the commission shall deny the appeal."¹⁹
28. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
29. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

IV. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The decision of the County Board of Equalization determining the taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2025 is affirmed.
2. The taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2025 is:

Land	$ 8,400
Improvements	$308,200
Total	$316,600

3. This Decision and Order, if no further action is taken, shall be certified to the Douglas County Treasurer and the Douglas County Assessor, pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5018.
4. Any request for relief, by any party, which is not specifically provided for by this Decision and Order is denied.
5. Each party is to bear its own costs in this proceeding.
6. This Decision and Order shall only be applicable to tax year 2025.
7. This Decision and Order is effective on June 5, 2026.
