

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

GERALD A. ALTILIO
APPELLANT,

CASE NO: 25R 1152

v.

DOUGLAS COUNTY BOARD OF EQUALIZATION,
APPELLEE.

DECISION AND ORDER
AFFIRMING THE DECISION
OF THE DOUGLAS COUNTY
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

I. BACKGROUND

1. The Subject Property is an improved residential parcel in Douglas County, parcel number 0536605420.
2. The Douglas County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $777,600 for tax year 2025.
3. Gerald A. Altilio (the Taxpayer) protested this value to the Douglas County Board of Equalization (the County Board).
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $777,600 for tax year 2025.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determination of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on March 18, 2026, at the Tax Equalization and Review Commission Hearing Room, Nebraska State Office Building, Lincoln, Nebraska, before Commissioner James D. Kuhn.
7. Gerald A. Altilio was present at the hearing for the Taxpayer.
8. Cindy Stovie (Appraiser) was present for the County Board.

II. APPLICABLE LAW

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.<sup>1</sup>
10. The Commission's review of a determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.<sup>2</sup>
11. When the Commission considers an appeal of a decision of a county board of equalization, there are two burdens of proof.<sup>3</sup>
12. The first involves a presumption that the board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.<sup>4</sup> That presumption remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary.<sup>5</sup>
13. The second burden of proof requires that from that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented.<sup>6</sup> The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.<sup>7</sup>

"When an appeal is conducted as a 'trial de novo,' as opposed to a 'trial de novo on the record,' it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal." *Koch v. 14. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>8</sup> Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.<sup>9</sup>
15. The Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.<sup>10</sup> The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the Taxpayer establishes that the County Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>11</sup>
16. In an appeal, the Commission may determine any question raised in the proceeding upon which an order, decision, determination, or action appealed from is based.<sup>12</sup> The Commission may consider all questions necessary to determine taxable value of property as it hears an appeal or cross appeal.<sup>13</sup> The Commission may take notice of judicially cognizable facts, may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge, and may utilize its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to it.<sup>14</sup> The Commission's Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.<sup>15</sup>

III. FINDINGS OF FACT & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

17. The Taxpayer challenges the valuation of the Subject Property, for tax year 2025, alleging the Subject Property is overvalued, that three neighbors received a lower valuation at their protests while the Taxpayer did not, and that there are factual errors in the property record file (PRF) used in the assessment.
18. At the hearing, the Taxpayer presented a packet containing various tables and maps showing the Subject Property's location and assessment relative to those of other properties the Taxpayer alleges are comparable.
19. The Taxpayer did not provide the PRF for the Subject Property or any of the properties presented for comparison. Without the details contained in the PRFs, the Commission is unable to determine whether the properties discussed are comparable to the Subject Property.<sup>16</sup>
20. The Taxpayer's assertion that three neighbors received lower valuations from the County Board is also unsupported. The Taxpayer asserted that the Subject Property was the only property in the neighborhood which did not receive a lower valuation. The Taxpayer further alleged that a property located at 629 N 163rd Street was built around the same time as the Subject Property, that it is comparable to the Subject Property, and that the protest was "Accepted" for that property while his protest was not. The Taxpayer asserts this is inconsistent treatment and lacks fairness.

<sup>16</sup> For this reason, the Order for Single Commissioner Hearing and Notice issued to the Taxpayer on February 10, 2026, includes the following:

NOTE: Copies of the County's Property Record File for any property you will present as a comparable parcel should be provided so that your claim can be properly analyzed. The information provided on the County's web page is not a property record file. A Property Record File is only maintained in the office of the County Assessor and should be obtained from that office prior to the hearing.*

21. The Taxpayer presented no information showing the County Board acted on the value of any other property or that those properties are comparable in any way to the Subject Property, other than his own statements.
22. Finally, the Taxpayer alleged at the hearing that there are errors in the PRF for the Subject Property.
23. The Taxpayer did not specify what these errors were or quantify how, if at all, they affect the 2025 taxable value of the Subject Property.
24. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
25. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

IV. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The decision of the County Board of Equalization determining the taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2025 is affirmed.
2. The taxable value of the Subject Property for tax year 2025 is:

Land	$ 95,200
Improvements	$682,400
Total	$777,600

3. This Decision and Order, if no further action is taken, shall be certified to the Douglas County Treasurer and the Douglas County Assessor, pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 77-5018.
4. Any request for relief, by any party, which is not specifically provided for by this Decision and Order is denied.
5. Each party is to bear its own costs in this proceeding.

6. This Decision and Order shall only be applicable to tax year 2025.
7. This Decision and Order is effective May 29, 2026.

SIGNED AND SEALED: May 29, 2026.
