

BEFORE THE NEBRASKA TAX EQUALIZATION AND REVIEW COMMISSION

Tenth Street Bridge Properties,
Appellant,

v.

Douglas County Board of Equalization,
Appellee.

Case No: 14C 241

Decision and Order Affirming the County Board of Equalization

Background

1. The Subject Property is a 7,820 sq. ft. commercial property, with a legal description of: City Lots Lot 1 Block 231 Lt 1 66x132, Omaha, Douglas County, Nebraska.
2. The Douglas County Assessor (the County Assessor) assessed the Subject Property at $703,800 for tax year 2014.
3. The Taxpayer protested this value to the Douglas County Board of Equalization (the County Board) and requested an assessed value of $322,600 for tax year 2014.
4. The County Board determined that the taxable value of the Subject Property was $703,800 for tax year 2014.
5. The Taxpayer appealed the determinations of the County Board to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (the Commission).
6. A Single Commissioner hearing was held on September 21, 2016, at the Omaha State Office Building, 1313 Farnam, Room F, Omaha, Nebraska, before Commissioner Steven A. Keetle.
7. Monty Bowman was present at the hearing for Tenth Street Bridge Properties (Taxpayer).
8. Linda Rowe of the Douglas County Assessor/Register of Deeds office was present for the County Board.

Applicable Law

9. All real property in Nebraska subject to taxation shall be assessed as of the effective date of January 1.<sup>1</sup>
10. The Commission’s review of the determination of the County Board of Equalization is de novo.<sup>2</sup>
11. When considering an appeal a presumption exists that the “board of equalization has faithfully performed its official duties in making an assessment and has acted upon

<sup>2</sup> See, Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-5016(8) (2014 Cum. Supp.), Brenner v. Banner Cty. Bd. of Equal., 276 Neb. 275, 286, 753 N.W.2d 802, 813 (2008). “When an appeal is conducted as a ‘trial de novo,’ as opposed to a ‘trial de novo on the record,’ it means literally a new hearing and not merely new findings of fact based upon a previous record. A trial de novo is conducted as though the earlier trial had not been held in the first place, and evidence is taken anew as such evidence is available at the time of the trial on appeal.” Koch v. Cedar Cty. Freeholder Bd., 276 Neb. 1009, 1019 (2009).

sufficient competent evidence to justify its action.”<sup>3</sup> That presumption “remains until there is competent evidence to the contrary presented, and the presumption disappears when there is competent evidence adduced on appeal to the contrary. From that point forward, the reasonableness of the valuation fixed by the board of equalization becomes one of fact based upon all the evidence presented. The burden of showing such valuation to be unreasonable rests upon the taxpayer on appeal from the action of the board.”<sup>4</sup>

12. The order, decision, determination or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary.<sup>5</sup>
13. Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence.<sup>6</sup>
14. A Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the Subject Property in order to successfully claim that the Subject Property is overvalued.<sup>7</sup>
15. The Commission’s Decision and Order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.<sup>8</sup>

Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

16. The Taxpayer’s representative alleged that the Taxpayer did not receive a fair hearing at the County Board level.
17. The Taxpayer’s representative did not present evidence to demonstrate that the Taxpayer did not receive a fair hearing at the County Board level.
18. The Taxpayer’s representative alleged that the County Board made an offer to Confess Judgment that “never went through.”
19. “The offer [to confess judgment] shall not be deemed to be an admission of the cause of action or relief to which the appellant is entitled, and the offer shall not be given in evidence at the hearing.”<sup>9</sup>
20. The Taxpayer’s representative alleged that the value of the Subject Property was negatively impacted both by its location in a historic preservation district and historic preservation work being done on the Subject Property as of the assessment date.
21. The Taxpayer’s representative did not provide any information to quantify the impact of the Subject Property’s location in a historic preservation district or of historic preservation work being done on the assessed value of the Subject Property.

22. The Taxpayer's representative alleged that the Subject Property was overvalued for tax year 2014.
23. The Taxpayer's representative presented no evidence that the Subject Property was overvalued for tax year 2014.
24. The Taxpayer's representative presented no evidence of value for the Subject Property.
25. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
26. The Taxpayer has not adduced clear and convincing evidence that the determination of the County Board is arbitrary or unreasonable and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

ORDER
